ATTACHMENT 2c
Requested Additional Power

Requested Additional Power

Petitioner requests that the court grant him the following power in addition to the general powers conferred upon him by law and under the Independent Administration of Estates Act: the power to terminate prior transfers of the decedent's copyright(s) pursuant to Section §304(c) of the United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §304(c)(2)(D), and to maintain and defend on behalf of the decedent and the estate all proceedings necessary or appropriate in connection with this action.

In the Matter of the Estate of JOSEPH SHUSTER, Decedent
Los Angeles County, California, Superior Court – Central District

ATTACHMENT 2d(1), 3(c) and 3(d)(1), (2) and (3)

No bond should be required of petitioner to act as Executor, or if a bond is required by the Court, it should be for a nominal amount, for the following reasons:

1. The first named Executor, Jean Adele Peavy, has signed and filed a Declination to Act as Personal Representative and Waiver of Bond of Mark Warren Peary as Personal Representative. Jean Adele Peavy, who is the sister of the decedent, is also the sole beneficiary under the decedent's Will and the sole heir at law of the decedent's estate under the laws of intestacy.

2. Petitioner is the alternate named Executor under the decedent's Will, and the decedent's Will waives bond.

3. Petitioner, who is the son of Jean Adele Peavy, is the nephew of the decedent.

4. A probate proceeding with respect to the decedent's estate would be unnecessary but for the fact that a personal representative of his estate needs to be appointed for the purpose of terminating prior transfers of the decedent's copyright(s) pursuant to Section §304(c) of the United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §304(c)(2)(D). This right of the personal representative of the decedent's estate to terminate prior transfers of the decedent's copyright(s) was enacted into federal law as part of the Sonny Bono Copyright Act effective October 27, 1998. The purpose of such new law, enacted over six years after the decedent's death, is to give authors and their estates the power to recover previously assigned copyrights within time limits delineated in the statute.

5. All assets of the decedent, with the exception of the decedent's interest in and to the copyrights, which currently have an undetermined value, were of minimal value and transferred through a §13101 affidavit by Jean Adele Peavy shortly after the decedent's death on July 30, 1992.

(Lost) Last Will and Testament

Grounds for Admission of Lost Will

The decedent died more than 10 years ago on July 30, 1992. Petitioner and other family members have made a diligent and extensive search for the original Will executed by the decedent on June 28, 1988, but have been unable to find it. Petitioner has only found a copy of such Will, which he is submitting for probate as the decedent's lost Will. Petitioner believes that the original of such Will has been lost or inadvertently destroyed. There would be no reason for the decedent to have revoked such Will by destroying it, because the terms of the Will replicate the result if the decedent died intestate. Under both the Will and the laws on intestacy, petitioner's mother, Jean Adele Peavy, who is the decedent's sister and sole surviving heir at law, would be the sole beneficiary of the decedent's estate and, but for her declination to act, would be entitled to be appointed personal representative. Further, under both the decedent's Will and the laws of intestacy, by reason of the declinations to act that have been filed concurrently with this petition, petitioner is entitled to be appointed personal representative.

The decedent never married and never had any issue.
